OCEAN, BAR, BAY, DOCK AND RIVER

The steamship Rose City came down from Portland early yesterday morning, outward bound for San Francisco, and went to sea at an early hour. She took away from here the following named passengers in her cabins: Ernest Loll, J. C. Jensen, Thomas Fisher, Thomas Brazel and C. Anderson; and in the steerage the following were registered out of this port: J. F. Seerola, C. Christiansen, A. Golden, N. L. Govanovich, Nick Apostad and A. H. Jansen. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Operator Ferland, of the United Wireless, at Smith's Point picked her up at a point 15 miles southwest of Yaquina Head, when she reported the weather cloudy and a light rain and the wind blowing from the South at 20 miles an hour; the barometer read 30.16; temperature 50 min.; small sea, with long swell running. All well on board and making good time.

The derelict Minnie E. Kelton, which has made quite a history in and out of this port during the past eight months, has been taken on to St. John's where it is proposed to patch her into such shape as to serve for many a year as a rock-barge for her owner, Captain Daniel Kern. She left her last beaching under the easterly shoulder of Tongue Point on Friday night, for the steamers Daniel Kern, Hercules and Samson, standing by and towing. Her lumber cargo which was taken from her water-logged hold is safely landed and measures nearly 300,000 feet of pretty fair lumber, considering the stress it has been subject to since the day of her wrecking and will go a good way toward paying

HOW NEW YORK CARED FOR "REPUBLIC'S" MEN

THE SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF READY CHARITY IN THE GREAT SEAPORT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—That husbands and fathers have just been restored to 84 wives and 139 children at the homes of seamen and stokers of the sunken steamship "Republic" in Liverpool was reported at the headquarters of the American Seamen's Friend Society in this city today. The census of the home folks who so narrowly escaped becoming widowed and fatherless was taken when over a hundred of these shipwrecked seafarers flocked from the "Baltic" to the new Seamen's Institute here—sick, half naked, penniless and barfoot. Only by quick application of an emergency fund 12 hundred dollars were they able to clothe and shod, the officers of the society declare.

No shipwreck in the present generation has demanded such immediate and extensive measures for relief as that of this big ocean liner, it is asserted by expert workers of this seamen's organization which has for eighty years succored stranded survivors of ocean disasters in forty of the principal ports of the world as well as in this city. While a thousand dollars was spent by them during the year 1908 to set on their feet the victims of the coast wrecks about this port, they say, more than this same sum was required in one night to provide the men of this one ship's stoke hole and fo'castle with the clothes to their backs. Only by the fortunate chance that its $300,000 Seamen's Institute had just been opened and by the instant contributions of scores of its friends here was the society able to relieve the crowds of shivering seamen, who came trooping to its doors from this shock of the seas that had left them without money or employment in a foreign harbor.

To fit America's chief seaport with a ready refuge for such stranded outcasts of the ocean, the officers of the American Seamen's Friends Institute have to-day decided to appeal to the people of every section of the land for a fund to be devoted to just such emergencies as the sinking of the "Republic." In every town in the country they believe the families and friends of seafaring sons will readily lend a hand toward providing means to instantly succor the victims of future great sea tragedies. Where established Red Cross and relief organizations make the shores of other countries thoroughly prepared to care for large companies of stranded sailors, America is to-day sadly unprepared, they believe the recent wreck of the "Republic" has shown.

"If the home folks of every mother's son who risks the seas will give up their help for this purpose, I believe a splendid reserve fund can be laid up against such emergencies on American shores," said G. McPherson Hunter, at the headquarters of the American Seamen's Friend Society, 76 Wall Street, to-day. "The instant contribution of $1,000 by the people of this city to meet the needs of the poor fellows of the 'Republic' shows, I think, that the succor of the seafarer is close to the hearts of our countrymen. If the whole people respond to our call, I know we shall soon be equipped to meet the most disastrous shipwreck that can come to the doors of any of our dozen stations at American ports on both the Atlantic and the Pacific coasts."

Half a million sailors come into port and embark each year within a stone's throw of the new Seamen's Institute on the waterfront here. With thousands more seafarers constantly exposed to the coast dangers of the country, shipping experts in this city declared to-day that every provision should be made at once for the results of such extensive shipwrecks as that of the ill-fated "Republic."

ILWACO

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Inman, of Fort Canby were visitors to Ilwaco Wednesday, returning to the fort Thursday.

Glen Buck, traveling for the Portland flouring mills, and Mr. Hayes traveling for Honeyman Hardware Co. of Portland were in the city Thursday.

Wilson Graham returned to his work on the Nasel, Thursday, after spending a few days with his children in Ilwaco.

J. J. Brumbach, returned Tuesday from South Bend Wn. where he spent a day on official business.

A social dance was given Tuesday evening in the opera house, by A. A. Seaborg and some of the Ilwaco boys. The dance was arranged in a very short time, and although the crowd was not so large as usual, a good time was experienced by all. The large phonograph belonging to H. B. Woodruff, furnished the music and it was the best.

The Ilwaco General Electric Company have fitted up offices in the rear of the Fraternity Hall, building, and expect to commence operations soon at this place and Stock-pole harbor, just below Oysterville.

Owing to the beautiful weather, Thursday several Ilwaco ladies were visitors to North Head Wash, among whom are: Mrs. Kelsay, Mrs. A. A. Seaborg and Mrs. Drewery.

Mrs. Chas. Eckert and daughter returned Tuesday to their home in Celilo, Ore., after a week or more spent with friends and relatives in Ilwaco, and at the Ilwaco Beach Life Saving Station.

MORE ANTI-JAP TALK.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 13.—While there is a consensus of opinion that the Anti-Japanese memorial which has been introduced in the House by Representative Norton is too drastic for adoption, it seems certain that with amendments which will be offered it will pass the House. The Silver Bow County delegation, 12 strong, and most of the Democrats favor it and enough Republicans have signified their intention to support such legislation to make it almost certain that the House, which has a Democratic majority of five, will send the bill to the Republican Senate. There is some probability the memorial will be killed.

ALASKA INSANE.

Appropriation Required To Care For Numerous Cases.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The problem of dealing with the rapidly increasing Alaskan insane has again been presented to Congress.

Secretary Garfield of the Department of the Interior has requested an additional appropriation of $75,000 to be made immediately for practically all the money provided for contract obligations has already been expended. The Alaskan insane, under contracts, are now being cared for by a sanitarium at Portland, Oregon, at a cost to the government of $384 a year per capita.

Secretary Garfield reported to Congress that the number of insane from Alaska is increasing constantly and the reason advanced is the extreme cold and the isolation from civilization of many of the inhabitants of that territory. There is no place in Alaska where the insane can be cared for.
